EVANGELIZING NOT IMPOSING

This Wednesday is the memorial of the North American Martyrs. This feast commemorates the 8 Jesuit Martyrs who were among the first martyrs of North America.

Their Shrine, the National Shrine of the North American Martyrs located in Auriesville, New York, is my favorite shrine in the United States. I recommend every parishioner to make a pilgrimage there. In previous letters, I wrote much about the Shrine itself. In this letter, I would like to share with you about how you can evangelize as they did.

It is quite evident that it is not easy being a Catholic who believes in the faith and moral teachings of the Church. Let's face it, chastity, respect for the dignity of the unborn, and other moral teachings are no longer mainstream beliefs.

Recently, Bishop Robert Baron made an online presentation of the 4 great philosophers of the modern era that greatly impacted the mindset of mainstream culture. It is titled: Ideas Have Consequences: The Philosophers Who Shaped 2020. I encourage you to watch this very informative presentation. These philosophers include Karl Marx, Friedrich Nietzsche, Jean-Paul Sartre, and Michael Foucault. What is similar with their philosophical ideas is that it is based in atheism. Therefore, you can deduce that our culture is atheistic.

So how can we evangelize the culture? The answer is giving people the love of Jesus Christ. That doesn't necessarily mean to give that love through words. Doing corporal and spiritual works of mercy is one of the best ways we can give the love of Christ to others. Saints Mother Teresa and John Paul II are wonderful examples of this.

It may be necessary that one may have to speak and say yes or no to certain things. During the month of October, which is Respect for Life Month, let us pray for doctors, nurses, and for lawmakers. These days there are bills that may be passed in our state and throughout the country that would force Catholic doctors and nurses to do procedures that go completely against their Catholic moral teachings. If it came to that, moral Catholic doctors would have to say no.

So how we can be a voice of Jesus Christ to the culture?

- Give the love of Jesus through spiritual and corporal works of mercy. This is the heart of evangelization. It is not through convincing arguments or imposing someone to believe our Catholic Faith. Rather it is offering our love for Jesus to others.
- In a conversation, instead of being that person who speaks up right away on a certain moral issue rather remain silent. What you don't say or don't condone can be a kinder and gentler way to defend the faith rather than hysterically blasting a belief that goes against the faith? People can tell where you stand in a certain topic if you don't agree with them by being silent. If you are with someone who is willing to listen to you respectfully, then it would be helpful if you speak up in a respectful way.
- Don't be afraid to say no to certain things that go against the Catholic Faith. As Christians, we offer ourselves to Christ in a love that is sacrificial. Saying no to certain things is also sacrificial.
- Try to learn a little about modern philosophy. I know this sounds daunting. Online videos from Bishop Barron's Word on Fire and Fr. Michael Schmitz are very helpful in understanding it. The North American Martyrs tried to understand the culture that they evangelized to.
- Offering a smile to someone especially to someone that you disagree or even dislike is a simple way to give the peace of Jesus.
- Pray. A great daily prayer to say is the Prayer of St. Francis. Spend more time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Read daily from the Bible especially the Gospels. Through a strong spiritual prayer life, giving the love of Jesus becomes more natural to us.

It's not easy being a Catholic. Jesus does not give us an easy life. As we journey to Heaven, He gives us the Cross and His loving presence on Earth. Christ gives us all that we need to be His voice. Let us stay faithful.

Pax et Bonum.

Reading 1

Ex 17:8-13

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel.

Moses, therefore, said to Joshua,

"Pick out certain men,

and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle.

I will be standing on top of the hill

with the staff of God in my hand."

So Joshua did as Moses told him:

he engaged Amalek in battle

after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur.

As long as Moses kept his hands raised up,

Israel had the better of the fight,

but when he let his hands rest,

Amalek had the better of the fight.

Moses' hands, however, grew tired;

so they put a rock in place for him to sit on.

Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands,

one on one side and one on the other,

so that his hands remained steady till sunset.

And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Gospel

Lk 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'"

The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Reading 2

2 Tm 3:14-4:2

Beloved:

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

Rainbows is a peer-support group for children and adolescents between the ages of 5-18 experiencing a loss in their immediate family through death, separation, divorce, military deployment or painful transition. Support groups are separated by age and run by caring trained adults. The goal of Rainbows is to provide a place for children to sort through a similar family circumstance and help the children come to a healthy acceptance of what happened to their family.
